

The following guidelines are designed to help you make the most of your experience with Beyond Horizons. As you participate and engage in discussions, we encourage you to keep these best practices in mind. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact marketing@hexure.com and a member of the Hexure team will be happy to assist you.

Be Respectful

Engage with fellow members respectfully and professionally. Beyond Horizons is a space for constructive conversations, and we request everyone to contribute with kindness, even when opinions differ.

Protect Confidential Information

Please do not share confidential client data, sensitive business information, or proprietary materials within the forum. Always ensure your posts respect privacy and confidentiality agreements.

Stay On Topic

Ensure your contributions are relevant to the discussions. When starting new threads, choose appropriate categories and make sure your topic aligns with the community's focus on Hexure solutions, industry insights, and best practices.

Share Knowledge

This forum thrives on collaboration. Share your experiences, tips, and insights freely. Help others solve challenges by contributing to discussions where you have expertise.

Use Clear and Concise Communication

To ensure effective discussions, communicate clearly and concisely. Avoid jargon where possible and make sure your points are easy to understand.

Give Credit

If you reference someone else's work, ideas, or content, provide proper attribution. Giving credit helps build a respectful and collaborative community.

Engage Regularly

The more you participate, the more valuable the community becomes. Regular engagement helps foster a collaborative environment where everyone can learn and grow.

Respect Moderator Guidance

Moderators from the Hexure team are here to ensure the forum stays respectful, productive, and valuable for all participants. Please follow their direction to help maintain a positive and engaging community environment.

Share Attachments Responsibly

When sharing attachments, ensure they do not contain confidential client information or proprietary data that hasn't been approved for public sharing. Only the following file types are allowed: jpg, jpeg, gif, png, txt, rtf, pdf, zip, tar.gz, tgz, and tar.bz2. Please note that the maximum file size is 0.1 MB, and the same limit applies to image files.

Don't Use for Technical/System Support

Beyond Horizons is a space for collaboration and knowledge-sharing, not for technical or system support. For any system support needs, please submit a Jira support ticket and a Hexure team member will be in touch.

Report Issues

If you notice any inappropriate content, disrespectful behavior, or technical issues, please report them by using the reporting tools within Beyond Horizons and send an email to marketing@hexure.com.

By following these guidelines, you'll help create an engaging, supportive, and meaningful experience for all members of Beyond Horizons. Thank you for contributing to our community!
